

Family History Day

Saturday, October 15, 2005

8:30 am – 4:00 pm

California State Archives

1020 'O' Street, Sacramento, CA

Just beginning the search for your ancestors? This FREE day-long event will provide you with information and assistance to help you get started with the fascinating journey to discovering you family's past.

Tour the California State Archives

Learn about Local Sources for Research

Watch a Demonstration of Preservation Techniques

Take a Genealogy Research Class (or several !)

See Demonstrations of Online Research

Use ROOT CELLAR's Genealogy Library

Visit exhibitors that include: Genealogical Societies,
Heritage & Lineage Organizations,
Historical Societies, Libraries & Research Facilities

Free Admission

Light Rail stops at the front door (Archives Stop) – Some free parking in Museum
Parking lot across from the Archives Building

Sponsored by:

California State Archives (www.ss.ca.gov/archives.htm)

ROOT CELLAR – Sacramento Genealogical Society (www.rootcellar.org or Sammie Hudgens 916-481-4930)

Genealogical & Historical Council of Sacramento Valley (www.sacvalleygenes.org)